Panitch Schwarze Belisario & Nadel LLP ("Panitch Schwarze") welcomes your comments and questions about general matters of law and about our website, lawyers and other subjects you may want to address. If you are looking for legal representation, there are some things you should know before you send us an email.

First, sending an email to our office does not create an attorney-client relationship, and none will be formed unless there is an expressed agreement between the firm and the client. Thus, we strongly advise against sending confidential or privileged information to us until you can establish such a relationship. Furthermore, we advise against sending privileged or confidential information through email at all, since we can in no way ensure the security of your email. In fact, neither this website nor the email system involved is encrypted, so you should not assume that your email is confidential. We cannot guarantee that someone else will not see it.

Second, the use of this website does not establish an attorney-client relationship.

The choice of a lawyer is an important decision and should not be based solely upon advertisements. If you want us to represent you, please contact one of our attorneys directly or click on the email button to send us an electronic message to determine whether such representation would be appropriate. We would be pleased to consider having a Panitch Schwarze attorney represent you. If you are interested in having one of our attorneys represent you, we will provide you with additional information about our capabilities and terms of engagement. Please do not send us any proprietary or confidential information without first talking with one of our lawyers and receiving authorization to send us the information.

If you communicate through this website, remember that it is not confidential. We may have prior client relationships or other potential conflicts that would prevent us from representing you or from treating your communications as confidential.

Panitch Schwarze has sought to comply with all legal and ethical requirements in creating this website. Panitch Schwarze in no way seeks to use this website in any way as to represent anyone in a state where this site may fail to comply with the laws and ethical requirements of that state.
